

HOME OF THE BLUE BISHOP

TRANSFORMING EDUCATION ONE STUDENT AT A TIME

AUTISM

*Always Unique
Totally Interesting
Sometimes Mysterious*

A LOOK BACK

Week of April 17, 2017

- ◆ Very Special Thanks go out to:
 - The APHS coaching team under the direction of Vice Principal Thomas! (Nancy Estrada, Terri Ann Sullivan and Sabrina Grasso) for meeting the SIP deadline. Your hard work and dedication is greatly appreciated!
 - Officer Robinson for seamlessly stepping in for Officer Pierce in his absence and ensuring the safety of APHS students and staff. We appreciate you!

FAILURE IS NOT AN OPTION!!!

A LOOK AHEAD

Week of April 24, 2017

Monday, April 24, 2017

- ♦ B Day (Autism Fact: New Jersey has the highest prevalence of autism with 1 in 45 individuals being diagnosed and 1 in 28 boys.)
- *PLC (Independent Lesson Planning)
- *National Honor Society's Leukemia and Lymphoma Bid for a Cure Coin Collection (Penny Day)

Tuesday, April 25, 2017

- ♦ B Day (Autism Fact: The average age of diagnosis of autism is 4 years of age.)
- *PLC (Writing Initiative w/Theresa Atchitson)
- *Discipline Committee Meeting, 1:15p.m.
- *ILT Meeting, 3-6p.m.
- *National Honor Society's Leukemia and Lymphoma Bid for a Cure Coin Collection (Nickle Day)

Wednesday, April 26, 2017

- ♦ A Day (In 2007, the United Nations declared April 2nd as World Autism Awareness Day.)
- *Delayed Opening
- *Senior Class Muffin/Bagel Sale (7:15-7:45), Main Foyer
- *PLC (Writing Initiative w/Theresa Atchitson
(Math Department w/Amy Herman
- *National Honor Society's Leukemia and Lymphoma Bid for a Cure Coin Collection (Dime Day)
- *Community Health Fair, 3-6p.m.

Thursday, April 27, 2017

- ♦ B Day(There is currently no medical test to detect autism or a cure.)
- *PLC (Independent Lesson Planning)
- *National Honor Society's Leukemia and Lymphoma Bid for a Cure Coin Collection (Quarter Day)
- *APHS Annual Spring Fashion Show, 5-7p.m.

Friday, April 21, 2017

- ♦ A Day (Dr. Leo Kanner was the first to describe autism in 1943.)
- *PLC (Independent Lesson Planning)
- *National Honor Society's Leukemia and Lymphoma Bid for a Cure Coin Collection (Spare Change Day)
- *ALT Meeting, 9:00a.m. – Conference Room

